

May I introduce my Quilting Sister ~

FAITH

Faith is the kind of girlfriend that is true blue, she is steadfast to the end. If you have a project that needs a "can-do" attitude, call on Faith! I've seen her move mountains to get the job done.

She isn't the type to sit around: she's an action gal! The other day I heard her tell a friend in need, "Pray as if it all depends on God, then roll up your sleeves and work as if it all depends on you ~ miracles will happen, believe me." Faith's mission is to encourage others to believe in what they can't see. Faith truly believes that each and every one of us can live our true heart's desire and life-long dreams.
